

Application Guidelines

Byron C. Glenn III Foundation

The Byron C. Glenn III Foundation pays the funeral home and/or cemetery directly. Funds will not be distributed to the family. There must be an outstanding balance in order to receive assistance.

Stillbirth Funeral Assistance (baby is stillborn at 20 weeks gestation or after):

- Due to our 501(c)3 status, baby must be at 20 weeks gestation or after and born still
- Must be resident in the state of Tennessee with services to be performed in Tennessee
- Byron C. Glenn III Foundation offers assistance up to $1,000 towards the cost of burial services, which may include grave markers.
- Byron C. Glenn III Foundation offers assistance up to $500 towards the cost of cremation services, which may include cremation container/urns.

How to apply:

- Fill out Application for Assistance, in full, and email to: info@bcg3foundation.org
- Notify your funeral service provider that you have applied for assistance through Byron C. Glenn III Foundation and should expect to be contacted by a member of our office.

What we do not pay for or fund:

- Byron C. Glenn III Foundation does not pay for funeral expenses 30 days past the services, medical bills, airfare, obituary postings, etc.
- Due to our 501(c)3 status, we are unable to assist families with a loss under 20 weeks gestation.
- Unfortunately, at this time we are only able to assist families who currently reside in the state of Tennessee with services to be performed in Tennessee.

NOTE: Your funeral service provider will receive a call from the Byron C. Glenn III Foundation to confirm the need within 48 hours of receipt of application.
